Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. During your advance ruling period, you will be treated as a public charity. Your advance ruling period begins with the effective date of your exemption and ends with advance ruling ending date shown in the heading of the letter.

Shortly before the end of your advance ruling period, we will send you Form 8734, Support Schedule for Advance Ruling Period. You will have 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period to return the completed form. We will then notify you, in writing, about your public charity status.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that your application for tax-exempt status under section 513(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is being reviewed. You are also eligible to receive a determination letter under section 170 of the Code. Because the letter will help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 513(c)(1) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. During your exempt status period, you will be treated as a public charity. Your exempt status will begin with the effective date of your exemption and will remain until a final determination is made by the Service.

Shortly before the end of your exempt status period, we will send you a letter that contains the relevant ruling period. This will have 30 days after the end of your exempt status period to return the completed form. We will then notify you, in writing, about your public charity status.

Please see revised regulation 1.513-6(c), Compliance Guide for Part 13, which contains the most helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
